

Table 008-1 LPC Training Matrix

Course Name	Target Audience Rationale to support retraining frequency & degree of training recommended	Training Source	Training Content
BCTS LPC EMS/SFM Awareness Training	Target Audience: Supervisors Rationale: Supervisors are responsible for ensuring they are knowledgeable in the BCTS EMS and SFM programs and are able to provide appropriate direction to LPC staff	BCTS approved trainer or online (when available)	Formal training, documentation must be supplied to BCTS to verify certification.
BCTS EMS Tailgate Training	Target Audience: Workers Rationale: General awareness of BCTS EMS	Can be delivered by an EMS trained Supervisor or worker- as stated above. Records must be maintained for BCTS verification	Per BCTS training materials
BCTS Fuel Training Module	Target Audience: Supervisors Rationale: Overview of Key Fuel Management Issues.	BCTS approved trainer or online(if available)	Formal training for those who handle fuel. Documentation must be supplied to BCTS to verify certification.
S100 and S100A	Target Audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All workers carrying out an industrial activity, when there is a risk of a fire starting, must have current S-100 certification. • For Planting, when there is a risk of fire starting, at a minimum all supervisors must have current S-100 certification, and for every 10 workers an additional S-100 certified person (may be a supervisor) is required. Note: All workers required to carry out fire control must have current S-100 certification. • Consulting services work is generally considered to be a low risk activity. Only supervisors or workers who conduct fire control activities must have current S-100 certification. • NOTE: To conduct fire control activities you must have current S-100 certification 	Online or Wildfire Management approved trainers	Fire Safety Training and Suppression
WHMIS	Target Audience: All worker(s) that handle any hazardous substance	Online or approved Course	As per regulation Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System (WHMIS)
Transportation of Dangerous Goods	Target Audience: Anyone handling or transporting class 3 dangerous goods in quantities greater than 2000 litres (i.e. single or aggregate quantities)	Online or approved Course	As per regulation http://www.tc.gc.ca/eng/tdg/clear-tofc-211.htm
SFI Training & Guidance Documents
SFM Training	Workers and Supervisors	Online for SFI or supplied by local Business Areas	Specific to CSA, SFI or FSC. Including SARA and invasive plants training consistent with SFM certification training requirements – to be updated by BA
Species at Risk Course	Target Audience: Specialist Contractors (multi-phase, silviculture, professional services)	Contract Biologist	Identification and management strategies / protocols for species at risk which occur in the business Area. LPC's unable to attend annual training must review training materials and document review on training summary

Table 008-1 LPC Training Matrix

Species at Risk Field Information	Target Audience: Workers	EMS Binder Contents	Field Guide covers identification and procedures for species at risk which occur in the Business Area
Invasive Plants	Target Audience: Workers	EMS Binder Contents	Field Guide covers identification and procedures for Invasive Plants which occur in the Business Area
De-Stumping Guidelines	Target Audience: Supervisors Applicable only to LPC's that require De-Stumping	BA Guidelines	Guideline identifies the general conditions and procedure of De-Stumping
Ground Based Harvesting Guidelines	Target Audience: Supervisors Applicable only to LPC's that require Ground based Harvesting	BA Guidelines	Guideline identifies the shutdown standards of Ground Based Harvesting
Working In and Around Fish Habitat	Target Audience: Supervisors Applicable only to LPC's that require Working In and Around Fish Habitat	A guide to Working In and Around Fish Habitat – by Fishfor	Guide identifies what is fish habitat, Fisheries Act, Due Diligence and the Role of the Environmental Monitor
Erosion & Sediment Control Practices for Forest Roads and Stream Crossings	Target Audience: Specialist Contractors including implementation contractors for road/bridge projects and EMS Conformance contractors	Provision of FP Innovations publication	A copy of Erosion and Sediment Control Practices for Forest Roads and Stream Crossings will be provided to the contractor

Truck Drivers and suppliers require general emergency response awareness (review of the onsite Environmental Emergency Response Plan). No documentation is required.