

Graph 3: Planting on Crown Land
Summary of Accomplishments

Ten-year analysis: Crown land planted has peaked in 1994/95 at 216,000 hectares. As the backlog of not satisfactorily restocked (NSR) land is regenerated, planting will continue to decline, leveling off over the next decade.

British Columbia
Ministry of Forests

